Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .to give you twenty-six, instead of twenty-four, solid pages of interesting, valuable shop reading matter. And we re not going to wait until the end of the volume to do it---we re going to increase the number of pages right now in the middle of the volume. We re going to give you the two extra pages next month. Yes, you re getting a big batch of valuable matter every month now, but we re going to give you more--more automobile information, more horseshoeing, more machine smithing, more woodworking, more everything. And now that we re going to get out a still bigger and better paper won t you show your appreciation by helping to get new subscribers? Tell your neighbor smiths about the bigger American Blacksmith. Give us their names, so we can send them sample copies. Tell them what the paper has done for you--what it will do for them. Give them a good, straight talk about your craft journal. If you send us one new subscriber and every one of our friends does the same, we ll soon have 50,000 and more. Now is the time. Show this number to your neighbor smith and then don t come away without his order. Agents and Agents. If you don t know the man who solicits your order and he can t show a letter authorizing him to act as our agent don t pay him any money. Give him your order, if you want...
