Brand New Book  Print on Demand .INTRODUCTION After my wife Anna passed this mortal veil of life onto the other side luckily a wonderful friend found her autobiographical stories and journal discs. I found it to be a blessing to read these journal entries and stories. Writings brought up feelings of my personal sadness including a new stable peace I felt within from reading. Anna was a Creative Arts Therapist and also a Astrologer with 25 years of experience. She had published a couple of articles on charting people s lives. You will see in her journal how she used astrology and formal psychological teachings to help her clients and friends. Her astrological entries are italicized so one can easily read them or bypass the complexities of chart readings. Oh yes I learned new things about Anna. Emotions of good fun-feeling from reading Anna s material profoundly had an effect on me. It was sort of like when one reads their personal horoscope and then feels good about them-selves. While I was reading from the computer screen I felt Anna was with me. Overall it was a big help with my mental stability. Anna wrote entries while living extensively in the mountains of a Sufi Camp and in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Reading them was for me like being at her side. She was exceptionally daring seeking out what was really happening with friends, clients and Sufi leadership. Anna was well aware that she had been very lucky to have reached the age of 53 before transitioning. She had been overly daring with people over the years. In her journal she wrote about this. As Anna s husband and one of the surviving 10 percent...
