Clarksdale now is the head of navigation of Big Sunflower River only at long intervals during periods of general overflow from Mississippi River caused by disasters to the levees. Faison, about 100 miles above the mouth, is considered the head of navigation. Boats can pass through Tchula Lake at moderately high stages. Snagging operations, etc. , for maintenance of the improvements, were continued during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, as follows: In Yazoo River from mouth to head; in Tallahatchie River to Swan Lake, 2 miles below Sharkey; in Big Sunflower River, including construction and repair of wing dams, to the Southern Railway bridge at Baird; in Tchula Lake from head to Linden, and in Coldwater River from Marks downstream to Jamison Place. A contract was entered into April 2, 1906, for the construction of a new steel snag boat, to...
