Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the year 2,118 the world is ran by the Kahlirs, an extremist group that came to shine through the Last War almost 3 decades prior. The Nationalists, those that oppose the Kahlirs, are attempting to overcome the Kahlirs. Adira Moretti has always had her life set in front of her until she realizes that she has the power to decide her own future. When she turns 13, she is taken from her compound in Prescott, Arizona to a College Complex to train to be a Nationalist spy. However, Adira, an observant and studious young adult, goes beyond classroom notes and assignments. With the help from her new friends Asriel and Maria Moreno, Adira unravels secrets about the human race through a series of adventures in and out of the Complex. Read this novella to see Adiras heroic growth and independence in a society where being original is hardly existent.
