I urge that our people give proper recognition to the day; that they fly flags from their residences and their places of business and in every other way show their hearty participation in this important event. When our boys first appeared on the battle front our first feeling was of pride, and then we asked ourselves what we could do to show our appreciation. Since then, as they have appeared in ever-increasing number in the lines of battle, our pride and our gratitude have increased. Many thousands of them have already given their lives that we may continue to enjoy the blessings of free government and of civilisation. Many thousands of others are lying wounded in hospitals. Not so many - thank God! - are in prison camps. As we read of our soldiers exploits we ask, again and again, what we can do to prove ourselves worthy of them. As I write, more than a million and a half of Americans in uniform are Somewhere in France, as willing to give their all, as their comrades who have already fallen upon the battlefield. And now, our opportunity has come to show that we appreciate, even if Fortune does not permit us to imitate, these heroes, living and dead. Words, even emotions, do not really count at a time like this; but only deeds. If we are grateful to our soldiers in the field, we will show it by subscribing to the...
