A native of Shakespeare country, England who after becoming smitten with her distinct, prominent Warwickshire accent became acclaimed by eager auditors at just turned age sixteen-years old as a ground-breaking performance poet predestined for one growing in the legacy of William Shakespeare, George Eliot and Aleister Crowley to name but a few. Morphing her accents pleasantry into a dreadful tone of voice that she is proud to say horrifies the fashionable listener, signifying the equally unsettling multiple personalities and topics truly enamoured of poesy. In a pre-eminent and alternative potion of diverse spoken word, music and sound effects -developed in childhood when she would write and then recite her verse through impish acts, dramatizing each subject and character with her voice. All praise was subsequent to an introductory single - A coffin for a bed (2002). Two years waved the partially-deaf autodidact author, composer and historian amidst the villainy of psychosomatic terror and farther coerce from a formal diagnosis of an absinthe addict, an alcoholic who had acquired a taste solely for the green fairy. Prospering onto the thought of sobriety...
