*This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Within a defined tract in the drier portion of the irrigation district the government will sell land for reclamation by means of irrigation. This tract comprises the southern portion of the province of Alberta and the southwestern portion of Saskatchewan. The conditions of such sales are: 1. Before any such sale is authorized it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the minister that the land applied for is irrigable and the water supply sufficient, and that the applicant has applied for a water right and received authorization for the construction of the necessary works. 2. When not exceeding one quarter-section is sold, at least ten acres shall be irrigated, but a sale on such conditions will be made only in cases where the irrigation works are entirely independent of any other works, and where the water is not used upon any other lands. Where more than one quarter-section is sold, or where land is irrigated on more than one quarter-section, at least 50 per cent of the area sold shall be irrigated. 3. All such sales shall be made at the rate of three dollars ($3.00) per acre, payable in six equal annual instalments, the first of which shall be made within sixty days from the date on which the sale is authorized. Interest at 5 per cent per annum is charged from...
