Esq., a member of the Board, as a Secretary. They have much satisfaction in adding, that this gentleman has, during the last year, as heretofore, prosecuted the important objects confided to him, with the greatest industry faithfulness and ability. Considering, moreover, the magnitude and complexity of the evils to be remedied in our school system and the fixed habits and institutions of society, we find much cause for congratulation at the success with which his labors have thus far been crowned. By his well-directed zeal and energy, public attention, long dormant, has been awakened to new views of the importance of improvements in the system of school education; an immense amount of valuable information on this subject, has been spread before the community, both by his personal addresses, and through the medium...
